Quick-firing Courses.

General Instructions.

. To ensure that full benefit is obtained from the courses, all officers, non-commissioned officers and men selected them should be carefully trained before proceeding to Shoeburyness, with the guns they will use there.

. The objects of the course are—

(i.) To teach shooting by night with guns which are intended to be so used, especially with light quick-firing anti-torpedo-boat guns, under as near an approximation as possible to service conditions.

(ii.) To turn out as many thoroughly trained layers as possible for the above guns.

(iii.) To train non-commissioned officers and men as instructors, who will disseminate the knowledge and experience gained at Shoeburyness.

In view of (i) officers, non commissioned officers and men should be selected as far as possible from the details lotted to the above named guns, and especially to quick-firing anti-torpedo-boat guns, in each command.

In view of (ii.), it is not desirable to send the same men year after year (except that in the case of Volunteers, en of the Special Servi e Section should be sent in preference to others, whether they have attended recently or t). Each man sent should, however, be as efficient a layer as it is possible to make him with the training which s station admits of.

In view of (iii.), only intelligent, well-educated men should be selected (subject to the requirements of (i.) and (ii.), id the proportion of non-commissioned officers should be as large as it can be conveniently made.

3. A nominal roll will be furnished to the Commandant, School of Gunnery, about a fortnight before the commencement of each course, showing the officers, non-commissioned officers and men detailed to attend, and the ins to which they are allotted for war. At the same time the names of additional officers and senior officers who ill attend will be sent in (see paragraph 6).

4. Even if the object of these courses (as stated in paragraph 2 above) is completely attained, the necessity remains practice by night with the actual guns which would be used in war, manned by the detachments told off to fight em, and under the nearest possible approach to war conditions. Such practice will be carried out locally wherever the circumstances permit.

Special Instructions—Royal Garrison Artillery (Regulars).

5. It is preferable that the detail from companies shall be furnished in multiples of one officer and 16 non commissioned officers and men, if this can be arranged without prejudice to the principles laid down in paragraph 2.

6. With regard to officers, the minimum numbers required to attend are entered in the programme which allows; more can be received up to a maximum of eight per course. Officers commanding coast defences will range for senior officers to avail themselves of this opportunity of attending service practice by day and night, ie dates of which will be notified to general officers commanding by the Commandant, School of Gunnery.

7. Arrangements for the attendance of detachments are to be made by general or other officers commanding, in mmunication with the Commandant, School of Gunnery. Any question arising therefrom will be referred for ie decision of the Army Council.

8. One half of the 12-pr. and 6-pr. Q.F. ammunition at present allowed to commands under the Equipment egulations, Part 2, Section XII. (a), will be expended by detachments in their courses at Shoeburyness, and the xpenditure in commands must be curtailed accordingly.

*Special Instructions—Royal Garrison Artillery (Volunteers).

9. Each detachment will be made up of two officers and 16 non-commissioned officers and men, detailed from the me corps. The number of detachments to be drawn from each corps is left to the discretion of the general or her officer commanding but the total numbers allowed to each command must not be exceeded without the uthority of the Army Council.

*These instructions will apply to Coast Defence artillery units of the Territorial Force.

Digitized by Google

In addition to the numbers given below, adjutants may attend with their detachments, if necessary, and one of the serjeant-instructors of the permanent staff should accompany each detachment, in addition to the numbers laid down.

10. Where corps contain officers and men belonging to the Special Service Section, and allotted for war to light quick-firing or other guns intended to be used at night, the details attending the course should, as far as possible be drawn from the Special Service Section.

11. As soon as detachments have been selected, steps should be at once taken to commence their training. Every officer, non-commissioned officer and man should have thorough instruction in laying (not necessarily with quick firing guns, if such are not available).

12. General or other officers commanding will notify to the Commandant, School of Gunnery, by the 1st February next, the number of officers, non-commissioned officers and men who are to compose the detachments from their respective commands, and the corps from which they will be drawn. This information will be given in addition to that required by paragraph 3.

13. Detachments will travel to and from Shoeburyness under a route and at the public expense, on the same lines as Regular troops.

APPENDIX III.

Memorandum on the Earning and Award of Marks under the Progressive Stage and Remission System.

The awarding of marks under the Progressive Stage and Remission System is a most important and responsible y, and requires the greatest care and att ntion.

The object of this system is to train and encourage the soldier under sentence to habits of industry and good duct. If, therefore, marks are given which are not earned by industry, the whole object of this system is eated.

The principle of this system is that—

Marks must be earned by industry.
Marks so earned may be forfeited by misconduct.

Rule 291 provides that a soldier under sentence shall be able to earn on each week-day, 8, 7, or 6 marks, ording to the degree of his industry. There are, therefore, three degrees of industry, each carrying a different ard in the shape of marks, and it is in deciding what has been the degree of industry and in fairly awarding rks that the exercise of care, attention, and judgment, by the governor or commandant is most necessary.

In order to facilitate the proper awarding of marks, work should be tasked wherever possible, and marks arded on the following scale:—8 for the maximum task, i.e., what can be performed in the full number of hours l down by a man working hard during the whole time; 7 for the medium tasks, or five-sixths of the maximum k; 6 for the minimum task, or two thirds of the maximum task. But there are some kinds of work which cannot so treated, and soldiers vary greatly in their capabilities, and it is in such cases that special care and good igment are required. In these cases marks should be allotted according to the industry of each soldier.

. OSBORNE, ISLE OF WIGHT.

Convalescent Home for Officers of the Navy and Army presented to the Nation by His Majesty the King.

Osborne is open for the reception of convalescent officers of the Navy and Army. Officers will be received at Osborne on the recommendation of the Director-General of the Medical Department of their respective Services, to whom all applications for admission should be addressed.

As regards the Army, recommendations for admission or applications from officers themselves, whether on the home or foreign establishment, should be sent direct to the Director-General, Army Medical Service, War Office, Whitehall, S.W. A medical statement of the case should be enclosed.

The accommodation at Osborne, which will be divided equally between the two Services, will provide for 43 officers, 5 of whom may be accompanied by their wives. Children will not be allowed to live in Osborne.

The entire stoppage to be paid will be 2s. 6d. per diem for each officer or his wife.

Medical attendance is free; but in certain cases requiring massage, special nursing, or other special measures, a charge will be made to cover the cost.

The duration of the stay of officers at Osborne will be determined by the House Governor and Medical Superintendent and the Consultant on duty for the month, subject to the approval of the Director-General, Army Medical Service.

Retired officers of the Navy and Army are admitted into Osborne only under the following conditions:—

a. If there is a vacant room at Osborne and there is no pressure for admission of officers on the Active List.

b. That the disease or injury from which the officer is suffering is "directly attributable to the Service."

c. That the officer has retired from the Service within five years from the date of the application for admission.

d. That the Director-General of the Service concerned is the sole judge of the fitness of the case (medically) for admission.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., &c., &c.
H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss S. Anderson, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

DE ROS, Lieut.-General,
Chairman of Committee.
